Kentucky Gives to all of You Her Greeting!

Fellow-Citizens!

COME TO THE COURT HOUSE TO-NIGHT!

AND LET US REJOICE TOGETHER!

The Regatta.—The windows of Messrs. Scott, Davidson & Co., Prather & Smith, and German & Brothers are decorated with the handsome and appropriate prize flags for the regatta on Monday and Tuesday next. This will be the first chance for our people to witness sights which are eagerly longed for by our Eastern countrymen, and which always attract the largest crowds upon the banks of the beautiful Hudson, the Schuylkill, and other rivers of the north and east. The prize given by Prather & Smith, a fine hat, will be conferred upon the crew making the fastest time without regard to class of boat, and the prize kindly tendered by Scott, Davidson & Co., a splendid morocco dressing-case, will be awarded to the best two-oared boat, with or without outriggers.

The races commencing at two o'clock each day, and will take place in the order advertised. The description of the races and the entries for Monday will appear in the columns of this paper. Entries are being made at German & Brothers, on Third street, and a large number of boats has already reported for entry. Those wishing to enter boats yet are requested to do so without delay, as the lists will close soon. Among the boats that have been built expressly for the regatta are the Ed. Wilder and Black Creek, by the Louisville Barge Club, the Lancaster, Kentucky, Harry Davis, and the Hebe, a Jeffersonville craft. Several new boats have also been built by the New Albany clubs. The fleet will undoubtedly be the largest ever collected upon the waters of the West. Interest in this grand aquatic contest, among boat owners and builders, as well as among the sporting fraternity, is growing more each day by day. The climax on Monday will prove most eventful. "Down the river, down the river, down the Ohio."

The communication published under "Union" is worthy of respectful consideration, both from citizens of this city, Jefferson county, and in the State. That there is a great scarcity of labor all through the country, and consequently high prices paid for provisions by every inhabitant, is a fact that cannot be gained. If there is a superabundance of muscular force in the city, whether it be black or white, not occupied here, it is put in use, how or in what way we will not venture to indicate at present.

Farmers in this county can not get laborers to work their farms. If we are correctly informed, every inducement has been offered for labor. High wages, interest in the products, as an inducement to laborers, have been offered, all without avail.

In some things we do agree with our correspondent. It is evident, however, that he looks to the future, and to the best interest of citizens.

On account of the illness of Rev. J. H. Heywood, there will be no divine service in the Unitarian Church, corner of Fifth and Walnut streets, to-morrow. We regret to learn that it has been discovered that Mr. Heywood's cheek-bone was badly fractured by a fall, and that he is likely to be disabled for some time. He has the sympathy of our whole people in his sufferings.

Mr. Samuel B. Taylor, son of the late Hancock Taylor, of Jefferson county, and brother-in-law of our fellow-citizen, A. M. Robinson, Esq., died of cholera at Peoria, Ill., on the 9th inst. His remains reached this city yesterday, and will be buried at 3 o'clock P. M. to-day from the residence of Mr. Robinson.

The Volkshaus deems it necessary to discontinue the use of telegraphic dispatches, and consequently the Anzeiger is the only German paper entitled to the dispatches hereafter, which gives to its subscribers a great advantage in obtaining news from all parts of the country through the telegraph.

Yesterday was "motion day" in the Louisville Chancery Court. It was a session day among the radicals of the country.

The New Albany Ledger hears of eight weddings that are to come off within the next two weeks in that city.

There is something slightly personal in the appended missive. Word that we could resist it.
